

School Outreach Programs – Theatrical Living History

Available at your school, church, or after school program

The Jimmy Carter Library and Museum now offers a traveling educational option: living history on several social studies themes

Out of Bondage: The Rescue of Russian Jewish Refugees

Written and performed by Suehyla El Attar

An accumulation of personal stories and historical events retold in a one-woman play.

Duration: 45 minutes

Themes covered: World History, Human Rights, Refugee Resettlement, Russian History, Jewish Studies

Grades: 7, 9-12

Book by contacting the performer directly at this link, and writing to the email address you find there: <http://www.suehyla.com/index2.html>

Fees – Negotiable. Determined as follows:

Performance fee - minimum of $150 (rate determined by number of performances per day and size of audience)

Copyright fee: $20

A/V assistant fee: $45 (waived if client can provide an AV assistant to run PowerPoint slide show and sound)

Vocabulary List:

Yiddish/Russian Language Art supplement:

Bibliography:

The Highest Office: The Campaign History of a Small Town President

Written and performed by Barry Stewart Mann

A humorous and moving story of the peanut farmer who rose from obscurity to become the 39th president.

Duration: 45 minutes

Themes covered: US government, Georgia History, US History, Civil Rights, The New South

Grades: 6, 8,

Book by contacting the performer at this number: 800-990-2961

Fees: $300 for a single performance and $500 for a double.

Copyright fee included with performance fee.

Vocabulary List:

Political Cartoon Supplement:

Bibliography:

Taken Hostage: Fifty-Two Americans Captive in Tehran

Written and Performed by Barry Stewart Mann

A dramatic portrayal of the events experienced by several US hostages taken during the 1979 Iranian Revolution.

Duration: 45 minutes

Themes covered: World History, US History, government, political science, public policy, Middle East studies, anthropology.

Grades: 7, 9-12

Book by contacting the performer directly at this number:

800-990-2961

Fees: $300 for a single performance and $500 for a double.

Copyright fee included with performance fee.

Vocabulary List

Arabic language/art supplement:

Bibliography:

